Grand Knight's Message: \(Contents\)

Worthy Brother Knights,

The date set aside for the Knights of Columbus Christmas Party is Tuesday, December 12th of this year at the parish hall. Knights from our council will prepare and cook the main menu while others bring side dishes and desserts. Santa will drop by to pass out gifts provided by their families to their children.

It's time to start planning for the party. For the past a few years, a handful of Knights have done all the work for all the different aspects of the dinner, for example, buying food, setup, preparation, cooking, and tear down; Santa, and raffle prizes, raffle tickets, and raffle. We'll also need your help to sell tickets.

I'm asking for more Knights to help this year to lessen the load on the few who are always doing the work.

Let's make this a successful evening with our Knight and their families. All Knights and their families are welcome as well as members of the Catholic Daughters.

This evening will also give me the opportunity to meet Knights I haven't had the opportunity to meet yet with their families. See you there.

¡Viva Cristo Rey! (Long Live Christ the King!),

Chaplain's Corner - Father Michael Sezzi (Contents)

November, the month of remembering those who have gone before us.

In a few days we will celebrate All Saints Day and then All Souls Day. These are special days, because as a Church we take the time, in our liturgies and personal prayer, to remember those individuals who are examples of how to live our Christian faith.

In their own unique way these two days are significant. On All Saints day we reflect on the life of those who the Church puts forth as clear examples of living faith. We look to and ask guidance from St. Joseph, patron of fathers, or St. Anne, patron of mothers, or St. Jude, patron saint of difficult situations. These are the types of people who lived in different times but ones in which we share the same faith and challenges in life. They are our faithful role models.

All Souls day is an equally beautiful day. This is a day in which we recall those family and friends "who have gone before us marked with a sign of faith." They too touched our lives and may even have influenced our life of faith in a particular way. They might not be known to others beyond our family or local community but like the Saints they continue to be examples by which we can live our faith.

All Saints Day and All Souls Day give us the opportunity to recall the lives of faithful people, role models of our Christian faith. During the month of November let us remember them and ask their intercession in our lives so that one day we too may join them in our Eternal reward.

Making a difference for life.

November 2017

Dear Brothers and Families,

At this time of Thanksgiving let us pause to count our blessings: the freedom of this great country in which we live; the opportunity we have for achievement; the friendship and confidence you have shown in me. For all of these things, I am deeply thankful. My best wishes to you and yours for a Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving.

At the same time, let us continue to pray for those affected by the turmoil in our state, country and world. For those who no longer have a home as a result of fire, water, earth, and wind in which to celebrate Thanksgiving. Let us pray that they find solace in members of their communities who reach out to them in their time of need.

And, let us be thankful for our spouses, children, parents, friends, pastors, employers and employees, who are vital parts of our lives and a blessing from God.

Last month I wrote about two of our life insurance products, a 20-year Pay Whole Life Policy, and the Optimizer. Both are excellent avenues of securing permanent whole life insurance at excellent rates. The first five associate members who call and schedule an appointment with me (and keep it) will receive a $15 Starbucks Gift Call. Call me if you wish to discuss one or both of these options.

Another insurance policy I encourage you to give serious consideration to, is our Long Term Care Policy. Our policy is the best in the market.

According to the U.S. Government Center for Medicare and Medicaid, an individual 65 years of age or older has a 70% probability of needing Long-Term Care ("LTC").

What is your plan to pay for Long-Term Care if you need it? – You have three (3) choices:

- Pay for care out of your own pocket until impoverished and then apply for Medicaid assistance;
- Plan to have your children and grandchildren care for you (just be sure to tell them about your plan well in advance);
- Use "other people's money" to pay for your care (i.e., obtain Long-Term Care Insurance).

Five Reasons to Carry Long-Term Care ("LTC") Insurance:

- Statistically there is a very high probability you or your spouse will need long-term care before you die. A 65-year old married couple has a 90% probability of one of them needing LTC;

- Contrary to popular belief, neither Medicare, nor VA, nor conventional health insurance will pay for LTC. Medicaid is the only government program that will pay for LTC, but you have to be impoverished to qualify for benefits;
- Being a caregiver to an impaired individual is a grueling job – one that can destroy the health, career and family of the caregiver(s) – who most often (80%) are uncompensated female members of the family;
- To protect the savings/assets of the impaired individual which would have to be spent down to near zero before Medicaid assistance becomes available (i.e., to avoid becoming impoverished and a welfare recipient);
- To provide the widest choice of care options possible for the independence/quality of life of the impaired individual;

Of the people who purchase Long-Term Care Insurance, 94% of them have had some direct or indirect involvement as a caregiver to an impaired individual

Contact me today to continue this conversation. It would be my honor to present you with options only available to our brother Knights and their families.

Fraternally Yours,

George J Majoué
